

Migration and Gender : relationships, economic resources and institutions in historical perspective (15th-20th centuries)

British Museum collection online

University of Cambridge - Postdoc Centre, 16 Mill Lane
8-9-10 November 2018

THURSDAY, 8th November

14-14:30 Registration

14:30 – 15:00 Welcome and Introduction, Beatrice Zucca Micheletto (University of Cambridge)

Institutions and law

Chair: Janine Maegraith (University of Vienna)

15:00 – 16:00

Teresa Bernardi (Scuola Normale Superiore, Pisa), Tracing migration within urban spaces: women's mobility and identification practices in Early Modern Venice

Alex Olkovsky (Boston University), Women in the wild West: immigration recruitment and gender in America's frontier

16:00 – 16:30 coffee- break

16:30 -18:00

Yukari Takai (University of Windsor), Threat to modernization? Japanese migration, prostitution and gender ideology in Hawai'i, in North America and in Japan (1891-1931)

Husseina Dinani (University of Toronto), Making the Southern province palatable: mobility and regionalism in colonial Southern Tanganyika

Alessandra Gissi (University of Napoli "L'Orientale"), "Foreign women in Italy". Female immigration and domestic work (1960's-1970's)

FRIDAY, 9th November

Labour market and economic resources I

Chair: Annette Cremer (Justus-Liebig University, Gießen)

9:30-10:30

Gabriel Jover-Avellà (University of Girona), Joana Maria Pujades-Mora (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona), Staying or leaving: women's labour market in the Island of Majorca in the seventeenth-century

Mateusz Wyzga (Pedagogical University of Cracow), The silence of the sources? What we don't know and what we can know about migration and mobility according to a gendered approach in early modern Poland (1501-1800)

10:30-11 coffee break

11:00-12:30

Ulla Ijäs (University of Turku), Migrants' belongings in the eighteenth-century Baltic Towns

Julie Marfany (University of Durham), Montserrat Carbonell-Esteller (University of Barcelona), Joana Maria Pujades-Mora (Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona), Migration and the household economy of poor in Catalonia (1762-1803)

Cheng Yang (University of Cambridge), Population movement before the age of industrialization: Migration and itinerant occupation in China, 1740-1898

12:30-14:30 lunch

Social networks and belongings

Chair: Janine Maegraith (University of Vienna)

14:30-16:00

Elisa Baccini (University of Padova), French women in Italy during the Napoleonic era: the case of Thérèse Langers

Marie Ruiz (University of Picardie Jules Verne), Unmarried gentlewomen's emigrant letters to British female emigration societies (1860-1914)

Nimisha Barton (independent scholar), "Chained women": immigrant women, Jewish Law and anti-desertion legislation in France (first half of the 20th century)

16:00-16:30 coffee break

16:30-18:00

Joyce Milambiling (University of Northern Iowa), Women's work: Settlement Houses in New York city, 1895 to 1920

Tyesha Maddox (Fordham University) More than auxiliary: Caribbean immigrant women's social networks in the Twentieth century

SATURDAY, 10th NOVEMBER

Labour market and economic resources II

Chair: Amy Erickson (University of Cambridge)

9:30-10:30

Kersti Lust (University of Tallinn), The Mulk 'threat': migration of land purchasers in 19th century Estonia

Joanne Wallace (University of Cambridge), Record linkage in the census of England and Wales 1841-1911

10:30-11:00 coffee break

11:00-12:00

Nicoleta Roman ("N. Iorga" Institute/New Europe College, Bucharest), A luxury to one's health. Midwives and medical care in 19th century Wallachia

Michalis Bardanis (University of Ioannina), Migrant brickmakers from the island of Kythnos during the first half of the 20th century Athens: a gender perspective

12:00-12:30 final discussion and conclusion

